

Nirmala College for Women, Coimbatore

Anti-Ragging Committee

Minutes for the Academic Year 2021-2022

The Anti-Ragging Committee promotes the wellbeing of students' life in campus. It helps them in overcoming the problems created by fellow students in campus and any misconduct of people outside campus.

- Ms. Masutha Begam, Inspector General of Police, Coimbatore City addressed all the students of the college through YouTube Live. She focused on gender equality and the protection of Women's Rights and Women's empowerment. Her recommendations recognize that the participation and leadership of women in every sphere of life contribute to a more sustainable and effective measures leading to a more peaceful and safer world.
- Dr.V.S Elamurugan addressed the final year students on Sexual Harassment. The session covered aspects and complaints related to sexual harassment and spreading awareness on gender-related issues. The session concluded with details of how an individual can take preventive measures against sexual harassment.

The Committee strives hard to nurture courage and knowledge to face the darker aspects of the society. It promotes self-discipline, civic responsibility and awareness of law and rights related to women's protection.
