ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

The Assembly Committee is responsible for the smooth conduct of Morning Prayer in the college. Prayer is an opportunity to spend time with God. Prayer is an avenue to resolution, the path to find answers to a problem. It provides insight to our dilemmas and tough decisions. There is nothing more important in life than to learn how to pray. Prayer is where we learn to talk to God, understand him, connect with him, and understand ourselves. Starting a day with prayer inculcates a spirit of confidence in everyone. It also instils a sense of discipline within oneself.

POLICY

1. To acknowledge and respect the Almighty's blessings.
2. To inculcate discipline among the students.
3. To recognize and reward the achievers.
4. To develop a sense of patriotism and unity among all the students.
5. To build confidence in public speaking.

PRACTICES

1. The Assembly Committee organizes Monday morning assembly in a systematic manner with the college prayer, a prayer song, reading from the Holy Scriptures, college anthem and thought for the week/ day.
2. The committee also organizes an open assembly for the entire college on one or two Mondays of the month to honor the achievers, for important announcements, for the introduction of the office bearers of the college union and develop patriotic fervor in the students.
3. The open assembly thereafter is addressed by the principal imparting values and moral teachings for life, which would be thought provoking for both the staff and the students.
4. Achievers from various fields (academics/ cultural/ sports) are awarded during the open assembly acknowledging their efforts and also ignite the other students to become achievers.
5. On all the other days, the Morning Prayer includes college prayer, prayer song inspiring thoughts and highlights on the important national and international days.
6. The committee deputed one department a week on rotation basis to conduct the assembly that bestows responsibility and develops confidence among students.

OUTCOMES

1. The assembly creates and nurtures the minds of the staff and students to begin the day on a positive note by invoking God's blessings. The reading of the Holy Scriptures paves way for the unity of religions.
2. The staff and students develop the feeling of being united attending the assembly, regardless of their age, culture and religion.

3. The assembly assists the students to understand the policies and values of the college and enables the students to develop social discipline.
4. The awards given to achievers before the entire college encourage all the students to achieve laurels and motivate other students also to become achievers.
5. Students shed their glossophobia and are significantly influenced by the life lessons accorded during the assembly.
6. The assembly brings the staff and students together, recognises their potential and appreciates their success in all fields.
