CODEX Newsletter

CODEX Newsletter contains events, which makes the institution move forward, the learning memorable and relevant. The following Policies, Practices and Outcomes give an overview of CODEX Newsletter of Nirmala College.

POLICY

1. To showcase the updates pertaining to the college events
2. To Focus on equipping students with Academic knowledge, Career choices, Employability skills needed and credentials in highly demanding fields.
3. To build up our relation with the students, alumni and members of faculty.
4. To bring out the plan of action of each department, clubs, associations and co-curricular activities
5. To showcase the overall accomplishments and Organizational achievements.

PRACTICES

1. The newsletter committee collects activities conducted by the Departments, various Clubs Associations and Committees of our college by the end of each academic year.
2. Newsletter gives short, clear and concise content which grabs the attention of the readers.
3. Newsletter is distributed to all the departments in the beginning of new academic year.
4. Newsletter is user-friendly and adaptive. Anyone in the campus or outside campus can access it.
5. The important Academic activities such as Seminars, Conferences and Workshops organized by each Department are highlighted with visuals and published, making it interesting and readable.

OUTCOMES

1. Newsletter is the perfect medium to allow responsible expression, challenging ideas, peer-to-peer influence and much more.
2. Newsletter serves as a tool to encourage more creative and innovative ideas.
3. Present students, alumni and faculty will get to know various achievements, awards received by students as well as faculty of our college.
4. With a newsletter, college can reach a very broad audience thereby gaining aspiring future learners.
5. Scholars produced by several departments and scholarships received by students will give an idea about the rich academic resources available in the college.
